

Health Care Consultant

Bridge Barn Consulting Inc.

Health Care Consultant Job Post

$33.00/ hour

Full-Time (40 hours/ week)

Work from Home in Greater Vancouver area with opportunities to travel for work across BC / Canada.

Bridge Barn Consulting Inc. is a Certified Indigenous Business working primarily with First Nations communities providing high quality project delivery in a variety of capacities including: Health Centre evaluations, strategic planning, community health planning, accreditation preparation, policy and procedure development, education and professional development, and project management. Our job at Bridge Barn Consulting Inc. is to “lift up” and empower our clients and embody Bridge Barn Consulting Inc’s mission of “moving forward together and getting better every day”.

Bridge Barn Consulting Inc. is seeking a Health Care Consultant to join our project delivery team. The Health Care Consultant works as part of a team with the Bridge Barn Consulting Health Care Consultants (Junior, Level I, Level II, and Principal Consultant), the Health Care Consultant will carry out aspects of projects independently and as a team member including: facilitating sessions, creating work plans, policies and procedures, conducting research and analysis, supporting communities to meet national accreditation standards, developing community-friendly documents and presentations to share meaningful information. If you possess personal attributes of humility, genuine care and concern for delivering high quality work, supporting First Nations communities, and strengthening Health Care and community services, this could be the role for you!

Benefits:

- Work from home
- Casual/business casual dress
- $50/month phone allowance
- Travel across BC and Canada
- Supportive small team environment
- Professional Development and career growth opportunities
- Dental care and extended health care
- Life insurance

MOVING FORWARD TOGETHER
AND GETTING BETTER EVERY DAY

bridaebarn.ca

Page 1 of 3

CCIB
CERTIFIED INDIGENOUS BUSINESS

- Paid time off

Job Duties:

- Establishes strong relationships to support and empower client teams working towards identified goals and targets.
- Listens and strives to understand First Nations cultural perspectives.
- Facilitates group and team sessions virtually and in-person.
- Supports communities to meet national accreditation standards.
- Supports the development of policies, procedures and job descriptions.
- Supports the development of work plans based on strategic priorities.
- Researches and gathers health information from various sources.
 - o Utilizes research skills to gather information about new and innovative practices and evidence-based practices.
 - o Works with clients to draw data from existing data sources.
 - o Gathers information through focus groups, interviews and surveys.
- Reviews, analyzes and summarizes complex information including qualitative and quantitative data.
- Writes, edits and formats large complex documents.
- Develops community friendly documents and presentations and reports including creation of graphs, tables, charts, illustrations and infographics.
- Presents information to various audiences.
- Collaborates with the development of proposals and project plans.
- Maintains confidentiality and upholds practices to safeguard privacy and security.
- Provides on-site and remote support to clients across Canada.
- Travel to remote and rural communities across Canada.
- Other duties as required.

Preferred Experience, Knowledge and Skills:

- Experience living and/or working in a rural community
- Experience developing policy and procedure
- Experience working in health care
- Experience working with accrediting bodies
- Master's degree in a relevant knowledge area (e.g. Health Sciences, Nursing, Administration)
- First Nations, Métis or Inuit person

Requirements:

- Demonstrated personal attributes of humility, genuine care and concern.
- Bachelor's or master's degree in the Health Sciences field.
- 5 years of experience working in healthcare

- Project management skills and experience planning and delivering projects.
- Change management skills and approaches to support change and transition.
- Continuous improvement knowledge and approaches to support organizational growth and learning.
- Coaching and motivational interviewing skills to support change and continuous improvement.
- Ability to produce high quality work independently and as part of a team.
- Ability to think critically and problem solve.
- Ability to apply flexible approaches and adapt plans at short notice.
- Effective relationship builder with experience providing quality service to clients.
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills.
- Experience working with First Nations people and communities.
- Experience facilitating small and medium sized groups.
- Experience conducting research and gathering information from various sources.
- Experience gathering information through focus groups, interviews and surveys.
- Experience gathering and analyzing qualitative and quantitative data.
- Experience developing and presenting reports and complex documents.
- Knowledge of privacy and security legislation for private business.
- Proficiency with computer systems and software applications (e.g. Word, Excel, Power Point, Outlook, SharePoint, NVivo, Zoom)
- Must be willing to provide a Criminal Records with Vulnerable Sector check.
- Must have a drivers' license.
- Must have a reliable means of travel to various work sites.
- Must be willing to comply with Bridge Barn Consulting Inc. policies for annual influenza vaccination and up-to-date COVID-19 vaccinations
- Occasional evening and weekend work may be required.

How To Apply:

1. Complete online Application Form at bridgebarn.ca
2. Email Cover Letter and Resume outlining your suitability for this role to hello@bridgebarn.ca

Only shortlisted applicants will be contacted.